The elliptical truth - I am walking to work and this is elliptical - not a straight reference, I am from A to B, but its deeper meaning, its spiritual truth - that working is working on the Concept and and is in fact Philosophy and Law all following me - or even the mathematical form of a proof following my movement by law by artistic grace of paintings made into a book or my books made into a reference in Argentina for a visit to lecture which accounts in functions to see me well.
